The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The RCE, Amendment, and IDS filed 23 April 2004 are noted. The claim amendments and newly cited references have been reviewed. Of particular relevance, Robinson et al. teach an oximeter method that includes multivariate analysis of spectral data for determining fetal oximetry values. However, Robinson et al. do not teach or suggest determining two values based upon two alternate methods as required in the claims. Further, as presented in the Statement of Reasons for Allowance of 8 July 2003, the previously cited references fail to teach the particularly claimed method steps as well. Examiner notes Applicant's comments regarding the statement of 8 July, and agrees that not all of the claims include each of the features recited in the statement (the semi-colons separate distinguishing limitations), and that the patentability of any particular claim relies upon the combination of all of the features recited therein. The claims remain allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
